I Spencer's Imitation Moleskin Hat.liarly desirable, at the present time. for its economy. For elegance and durability, it competes successfully with the most costly Hats worn. Price $3 25. SPENCER, al6 tf Fashionable Hatter, No. 245 Broadway.

IT Hats of the Fall Style are now rendy. [The model for the season is a slight modification of the prevailing Paris mode. 1 SPENCER'S Sales Room. September 1st.

D' Orlando Fish, Fashionable Hatter, 137 Broadway, would inform the gentlemen of New York that his Fall and Winter style of Hats is now ready for their inspection and critical judgement. Claiming the distinction of having been the first to project and abide by a strictly AMERICAN style of Hats, Instead of servilely copying the Fashlons of Europe, which are often unsuited to our climate and manners, he rejoices to perceive that others have seep fit to follow his lead, and that now the following of European Fashions in Hats is almost entirely abandoned by the leading manufacturers.

He offers a Winter style of Gentlemen's Nutria Hats at $3 50, and warrants them equal in material, finish, fashion and durability to any Hat sold as low as $4 in the city. But he wishes it distinctly understood that his best Hats are not sold at this price, but at $4.50. There he recommends as equal to any hat sold in New-York at $5 or under, and challenges for them a comparison with any other.

Centlemen visiting our city are respectfully invited to call and examine his new stock of Winter hats and judge of their quality. He is confident that, whether the chapest of the best Hat is desired, the inquirer will here be satisfied. Try him. ($200) O. FISH, 137 Broadway.

17 Economy and Fashion. Superior Imita tion Moleskin Hats, cloth under brims, at the extreme low price of $2.50. Also a very good article at $7, warranted fur bodies. Fine Cassinere Hats reduced to $3.50. If in any instance the above Hats do not give satisfaction to the wearer he can be fully satisfied by giving information to J. W. KELLOGO, No. 13.2 Canal-st., corner of Thompson.

1.7 Fur Hats at $3 50.-The subscriber having LT Fur Hats at $3 50.—The subscriber having that a number of applications for a FUR HAT, combining the qualities of beauty and durability, at a reduced price, has made arrangements with his manufacturers by which he will be enabled, on Wednesday next, Oct. 12th, to offer to his numerous customers, and the public generally, an article which, for themes of internal and beauty of finish, he tormerly sold for six and even seven dollars; still, he has no hesitation in asserting that it is sworth at least tweive and a half per cent more than the price asked. He is also prepared to sell a CASSIMERE HAT of superior quality at the same price, for which, together with an assortment of Satin Beaver, Moleskin, and extra fine Fur Hats, he solicits share of public patronage.

his beautiful, graceful, and tasteful low bell-crowned Hat, being the only really fashionable article of the kind extant. though be cannot expect but imitators will spring up, and claim the benefit of his own original conceptions.

To say that these Hats surpass any thing of the kind in point of style, finish, and graceful appearance, is to claim no more than is warranted by an experience of twenty year in the business, and he invites gentlemen, who study grace and lashion, to call and examine for themselves. A large assortment of Traveling Trunks, Carpet Bags, Hat Cases, and, in fact, every thing necessary for a gentleman's traveling outfit, may also be found at

If Fall Fashion Mats now rendy-Watson's Silk Hats, only $2.50, are recommended to the public not only for economy but as possessing all the elegance of contour of the most costly; combining utility with beauty; this article cannot fall to commend itself to the connolsseur as well as economist. Also, Moleskin Hats, at $3.00; Beavers at $4.50; Cassimere and Nutria Hats, at $3.50 each; thes are his standard prices, and he need only remark that by confining himself to one quality and price for each descrip-tion of hats, he is enabled to furnish a superior article at prices for below those at which Hats of the same description are now vending by other manufacturers. A steady and permanent increase of patronage for the last 7 years is a sufficient indication of public judgement od constitutes the best test of their merits.

B. G. B. Alvord's S3 50 Hats No.1 Broadway and No. 12 Bowery, N. Y. having an object his fall pattern of Gentlemen's Hats in September, the style and leantly of which is the consequence of a greatly increased demand, yet the spirit of a landable economy suggests some abatement in prices, to which, as far as practicable, he yields readly assent, and to that end as the result of experiment and eady assent, and to that end as the result of experiment and skill in workmanship, he is most thappy in informing his friends and sustomers that in addition to his usual variety.

G. B. A. in recommending his new style of Hais would not attempt any play upon the imagination but most respectfully invites the lavers of a becoming and tasteful article of dress to the most perfect production he has ever introduced—in model light and siry—in texture fine and delicate—it is strikingly beautiful, the eye resting upon it with astisfication and delight, and it is the intention that the intrinsic excellence of his manufacture shall fully sustain the reputation he has so long everyed.

Il Sudden Illness and Death!-For nearly raif a century the Infallible Health Pills of Dr. RUSH were used by him in a most extensive and success ul practice in Philadelphia and other parts of the country. So great was his confidence in their value and officacy in the removal of the causes of disease, that he never suffered the families he visited to be without a box of them, to be given in cases of emergency, and it is a well known fact that by their prompt administration many valuable lives have been saved, which, without their aid, would have been lost before medical assi-

tance could be procured. It is important, therefore, that they should be kept in eve ry family, not only on account of their general efficacy, but more particularly for their invaluable properties, affording mmediate relief in those painful and alarming complaints windy spasms, sensation of suffication, violent headache gid dness, fear of talling, apoplexy, goat in the stomach brobbing in the temples, fits, and nervous tremblings, &c

For indigestion THE INFALLIBLE HEALTH FILLS are a sovereign remedy, by taking four or five at first, and two every other night till a cure is effected, which a few weeks suffice to do in cases of the longest standing. They act gently on the bowels, stimulate the liver, carry off bile ious accumulations, and promote a regular and healthy circulation. They may be taken at any time, on the first symptoms of illness, without fear of injury from cold. SOLD, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.
